Supporting SourceCode from Denver, CO

How Can Maddie Help You?

- Onboarding New Partners
- Sales Enablement for Major Partners
- Quote and Order Support
- Sales and Demo Calls
- Partner Program Education

Maddie has 3 years of channel experience working with resellers and their sales organization to build strong vendor relationships. Networking is where Maddie's true colors shine, where recruiting new partners to expand SourceCode's ecosystem within the Channel is her first priority. With her previous experience within the security space, Maddie is equipped with a repertoire of strategies to gain traction for new and reoccurring business for SourceCode. When she is not minimizing cyber disruptions, you will most likely find her cycling or snowboarding depending on the season.
