

Climb Channel Solutions Announces Strategic Partnership with Liongard

Eatontown, NJ (November 12, 2025) – Climb Channel Solutions, an international specialty technology distributor and wholly owned subsidiary of Climb Global Solutions, Inc. (NASDAQ: CLMB) is excited to announce a strategic partnership with Liongard, a leader in asset intelligence and automation.

This collaboration aims to enhance the capabilities of managed service providers (MSPs) by providing them with advanced tools to manage and secure their IT environments more effectively. By leveraging Liongard's comprehensive asset intelligence platform, MSPs can gain deeper insights into their clients' IT infrastructures, enabling them to proactively identify and mitigate potential risks. Additionally, the automation features offered by Liongard will streamline routine tasks, allowing MSPs to focus on delivering strategic value to their clients. This partnership underscores Climb Channel Solutions' commitment to empowering MSPs with innovative solutions that drive operational efficiency and security.

“Climb’s partner-first approach and strong community align perfectly with our mission to empower the ecosystem. Together, we’re equipping providers with the asset intelligence they need to deliver greater value, strengthen security, and scale with confidence,” said Chessie Huber, Distribution Channel Manager at Liongard.

Liongard delivers deep visibility, proactive security, and automation across the IT stack from a single platform. Partners use Liongard to discover risk, enforce controls, and automate outcomes that drive stronger cyber resilience and operational efficiency.

“We are thrilled to partner with Liongard, a company that shares our commitment to innovation and excellence. This partnership will enable our resellers to offer their customers unparalleled visibility and control over their IT environments, helping them to mitigate risks and enhance operational efficiency,” said Dale Foster, CEO of Climb.
